WORK EXPERIENCE

PlawLogic | Head of Growth & Operations | Sep 2025 – Present

Integrated campaigns · Growth & lifecycle · AI consumer products · 0-to-1

- Owns the growth and go-to-market strategy for three early-stage AI products (Nooka, Drama.Land, iLands), reporting to the founders, setting objectives and KPIs, and owning the revenue number end-to-end.
- Plans and executes integrated launch campaigns across paid (Google, Meta), owned (landing pages, email/CRM), and earned (PR, influencer seeding, community) channels — building account matrices, activating seed users, funneling them into a Discord community, and recruiting KOC creators to co-create and amplify creative.
- Built and owns the full onboarding-to-paid conversion funnel and ran three focused optimisation sprints across performance, pricing, and landing-page conversion: cut performance-related complaints by 30%, improved gross margin by 10%, and lifted landing-page conversion by 20%.
- Built the measurement and attribution layer for creator partnerships — combining long-tail KOC collaborations with paid amplification to compute a blended ROAS — and uses it to decide which creators and messages to scale; took Drama.Land to USD 1M ARR in 4 months (Meta Day-0 ROAS above 1).
- Built growth tooling through vibe coding with Claude Code (landing pages, creative, content, analysis), turning one-off experiments into repeatable, documented playbooks.

- Built RoboNeo's creator-rewards program (a tiered "active → task → publish → revenue-share" ladder) that turned creators into an owned growth channel and generated tens of millions of impressions; negotiated a long-term partnership with the AI Design community on X, running a bi-weekly challenge for six months that grew X traffic by 100%.
- Set KPIs, forecast results, and built the measurement frameworks to optimise spend: defined budgets and demonstrated ROI across channels — Meta Day-0 ROAS up to 1.9, EDM open rate 20%, influencer channel ~7% paid-conversion vs. sign-up, a Xiaohongshu topic +200% traffic in one month.
- Reporting to the CPO, also delivered product strategy and GTM design for Meitu (Meituxiuxiu), KaiPai, the Innovation BU, and the Meitu Open Platform, backed by an automated market/competitor monitoring system feeding six business units.
